

COOKIES POLICY – YOGAONE.IT

---

1. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small text files that websites send to the user's device (typically the browser), where they are stored and sent back to the same websites on subsequent visits. Cookies allow the site to recognize the user and enhance the browsing experience.

2. TYPES OF COOKIES USED

The website www.yogaone.it uses the following categories of cookies:

a) Based on their origin:

- First-party cookies: managed directly by YogaOne.
- Third-party cookies: set by external services like Google Analytics, Facebook, Hotjar, or other tools for analysis and marketing purposes.

b) Based on their duration:

- Session cookies: deleted when the browser is closed.
- Persistent cookies: remain active until their expiration date or manual deletion.

c) Based on their function:

- Technical cookies: essential for the website's operation and to provide requested services.
- Functionality cookies: remember user preferences (language, selected center, etc.).
- Analytical cookies: collect aggregated information about site usage.
- Profiling cookies: create user profiles to send personalized advertising (with prior consent).
